"Sew" appropriate for the holidays

Summary: Between shows, and as a way to improve their sewing skills, students in the UMM theatre costume shop sew receiving blankets for newborn babies in Stevens County.

(November 26, 2007)-Between shows, and as a way to improve their sewing skills, students in the UMM theatre costume shop sew receiving blankets for babies, under the watchful eye of theatre production costumer and Morris resident Liz Spohr. Fabrics are provided by the Salvation Army. Blankets are constructed in the costume shop, returned to the Salvation Army and then distributed to newborn babies in Stevens County.
